

(11) mixing of land uses which are not compatible -- e.g., a house next to an industrial plant.

The examination of land capabilities in the Roxboro Area has pointed out specific limitations upon development in some areas. The purpose of the land capabilities section is to identify areas of significant potential or problems as far as future development is concerned.